

PHA Name : Harrisonburg

PHA Code : VA014

MTW Supplement for PHA Fiscal Year Beginning : (MM/DD/YYYY): 1/1/2022

PHA Program Type: Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) only

MTW Cohort Number: MTW Flexibility for Smaller PHAs

MTW Supplement Submission Type: Annual Submission

B. MTW Supplement Narrative.

The Harrisonburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority (HRHA) is a progressive agency experienced in providing housing for individuals with extremely low incomes, developing affordable housing, building community and coalitions, and revitalizing neighborhoods. HRHA is a leader in advocating for affordable housing and empowering self-sufficiency for residents. It provides service coordination and/or peer support services at all its residential properties.

HRHA's vision for the Moving to Work (MTW) program is to be a proactive, innovative agency that identifies, develops, and implements evidence-based housing policies that address local needs; increase self-sufficiency outcomes for participants; provide greater mobility and access to housing options, including supportive services; and promote efficiency and efficacy throughout service delivery and operations.

HRHA is implementing a rent reform and incentive program that will encourage and support participant self-sufficiency and increase landlord involvement through community-based services and incentives. Higher voucher use and retention, increased landlord participation and retention, and decreased administrative burden will improve cost effectiveness. MTW participation will allow HRHA to adapt to change and develop local solutions to address housing and self-sufficiency challenges. MTW goals and activities are:

1. Improve Program Cost Effectiveness & Reduce Administrative Burden

- Accept partner agencies' inspections to meet Housing Quality Standard (HQS) requirements. Using the Harrisonburg-Rockingham Community Services Board (HRCBS) and its certified HQS inspectors will save staff time by collaborating with a known, qualified agency to conduct inspections. This partnership will increase HRHA efficiency and allow staff to focus on more critical tasks that benefit tenants, to increase strategic initiatives, and to better coordinate efforts.

- Reduce the frequency of household certifications so participants keep more of their income increases. This also reduces the burden on participants and Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) specialists in acquiring, submitting, and processing paperwork. Switching to a triennial certification schedule and limiting interim certifications to one annually will save costs as currently interims are extremely time consuming for staff and stressful for residents. Tenants will have a longer time with consistent rent to allow better financial planning and housing security as well as a greater ability to save for life goals. The paperwork burden on voucher holders will lessen if they do not have to submit income and employment changes for incremental increases and fluctuations. HRHA voucher staff will group tenants into a logical certification schedule while still allowing tenants to request interim certification if needed.

- Simplify rent calculations for non-elderly, non-disabled households as follows:

- o Increase minimum rent from $50 to $100.

- o Increase total tenant payment to 35 percent of income.

- o Eliminate child care deductions.

- o Simplify the utility allowance schedule.

These simplifications make rent calculations more understandable for tenants. The changes save tenants' time and in many cases lower costs. Decreased staff paperwork allows more time to work with tenants, explore new projects, or participate in training in possible new areas or expanded services. Simplified paperwork also benefits landlords by determining household eligibility more quickly. Higher minimum rent encourages employment. Hardship exceptions are allowed when these changes create a rent burden.

- Require documentation of assets over $50,000 only. Reducing documentation saves time for staff and the majority of tenants whose assets are below a level that makes a difference in qualifying for support.

- Eliminate the earned income disallowance and exclude school grants and school funding of all kinds from income for non-elderly, non-disabled households. This applies to students of any age, attending full time or part time. Scholarships; financial aid; grants and contributions from any source, including family members; work study income; and all other funding will be excluded and not counted as income. For non-student household members, income from dependents 20 and younger will not be included in the rent calculation. Wage income from household members 21 and older will be counted. This change saves staff and tenant time tracking receipts and doing repeated, changing calculations that do not significantly change tenants' situations.

- Increase the portability term in Franklin Heights units from one year to two years. This change increases the initial term of housing stability for residents and decreases the administrative burden for staff after initial intake.

2. Increase Participant Self-Sufficiency

- Replace the Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) escrow model with a Goal Rewards Model where participants earn immediate cash incentives for reaching milestones related to income, finance, education, health, employment, and other self-sufficiency goals. Incentives immediately and tangibly reward participants for progress toward self-sufficiency and inspire them to take the next steps. Participants will have the choice to receive the incentive immediately via check or deposit the amount into an HRHA managed savings account. Increases in income will not be recorded and will not contribute to increases in escrow. There will be incentives based on maintaining and earning income, however they will not be directly tied to increases in income from start of program. Participants will be able to save faster for life goals while preserving the ability to use savings if necessary because of life events.

- Transition to a participant-driven coaching model that better supports and empowers participants in meeting their goals. This coaching model will give participants more ownership of their path forward while still providing needed guidance. It will increase collaboration and trust between staff and participants to make progress toward goals. These changes shift the agency-participant relationship away from rule enforcement and toward life coaching. FSS staff will help participants clarify program goals based on their needs, abilities, and skills.

- Provide coaching support up to six months after a participant graduates from the FSS program. Continued support provides stability and familiarity during the challenges of transition, increasing participants' chances of success by maintaining a trusted relationship.

3. Increase Housing Choice

- Expand landlord recruitment and retention efforts to increase landlord participation by offering:

- o Security deposits up to one month's contract rent, once per tenant

- o Rent for empty units for one month

- o Damage coverage beyond the security deposit up to one month's rent

- o Payment incentives including a referring landlord bonus of $250; a new landlord signing bonus of $250; and a new contract bonus of $250

These incentives will increase retention of current program landlords and attract new landlords by reducing risk of monetary loss. Security deposits will make landlords more willing to hold units for voucher participants. A larger reliable pool of landlords will help HRHA house more families more quickly and possibly reduce its large waiting list.

- Raise 1BR payment standard from current 110 percent of FMR to 120 percent. Raise accessible unit payment standard to 140 percent for units of all sizes for households requiring those features. HRHA will determine if unit qualifies. This change will increase housing choice in local tight rental market, especially for high demand 1BR units and scarce accessible units. It will also serve as an incentive for current and prospective landlords to participate.

- Provide more help with the housing search, including one-on-one support in locating affordable rentals. Cost will be covered by funding flexibilities. Targeted help will result in faster and better matches of renters to available units. These efforts will fill empty units more quickly, improving long term relationships with landlords. HRHA is considering using funding flexibility to create a dedicated housing locator on staff to customize housing searches more specifically to clients' needs.

- Increase the flexibility to project-base voucher (PBV) rental assistance up to the 50 percent maximum. Flexibility will allow HRHA to expand the number of vouchers available to project base, which will increase the number of housing options and units available for those with extremely low income. This change will allow for increased access for hard to find units, such as accessible one bedroom units. HRHA anticipates it will allow for the development of additional permanent supportive housing units. It will also increase administrative efficiencies and allow tenants to be housed more quickly when appropriate units are available.

- Remove the limits to the number of PBV units in property buildings. Removing these limits will allow HRHA to increase the number of units within a building without HUD approval. This change will increase the number of units available for extremely low income individuals needing deep rental assistance. It will provide for more flexible use of housing units and increased choice for tenants.

- Eliminate the procurement process for HRHA owned units. This change allows HRHA to use project-based vouchers to assist in renovating HRHA owned properties. The elimination reduces development costs and increases efficiencies for HRHA in renovating or developing new units in its tight housing market.

C. MTW Activities Plan that Harrisonburg Plans to Implement in the Submission Year or Is Currently Implementing

1.f. - Minimum Rent (HCV)
The minimum rent will be set at $100 for all non-elderly, non-disabled households. Along with the total package of tenant rent policy changes, these simplifications make rent calculations more understandable for tenants and still allow hardship exceptions if necessary. Increased minimum rent is offset to some degree by other changes and may encourage employment. The changes save tenant time and in many cases lower costs. Decreased staff paperwork allows more time to work with tenants, explore new projects, or participate in training in possible new areas or expanded services.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

The Impact Analysis that applies to this MTW activity also applies to the following MTW activities:

1.f. - Minimum Rent (HCV);1.h. - Total Tenant Payment as a Percentage of Gross Income (HCV);1.s. - Elimination of Deduction(s) (HCV)

minimum rent or minimum Total Tenant Payment (TTP) -

$100

1.h. - Total Tenant Payment as a Percentage of Gross Income (HCV)

Raising TTP to 35 percent for non-elderly, non-disabled households.

Along with the total package of tenant rent policy changes, these simplifications make rent calculations more understandable for tenants and still allow hardship exceptions if necessary. Increased TTP is offset by other changes, and overall changes are designed to encourage employment for residents and increase efficiency for staff. The changes save tenant time and in many cases lower costs. Decreased staff paperwork allows more time to work with tenants, explore new projects, or participate in training in possible new areas or expanded services.

1.r. and/or 1.s. "elimination of deductions";1.v. and/or 1.w "alternative inclusions and exclusions"

1.j. - Alternative Utility Allowance (HCV)

HRHA will create one utility allowance for all unit types. Allowance will still vary by bedroom size and by whether unit rent includes utilities. PBV units may have a separate utility allowance. Along with the total package of tenant rent policy changes, these simplifications make rent calculations more understandable for tenants and still allow hardship exceptions if necessary. Alternate utility allowance is balanced by other changes. The changes save tenant time and in many cases lower costs. Decreased staff paperwork allows more time to work with tenants, explore new projects, or participate in training in possible new areas or expanded services.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

Specific utility calculations have been ordered from The Nelrod Company in June and are expected to be available soon.

1.n. - Utility Reimbursements (HCV)

Utility reimbursements under $20 per month will be eliminated. Along with the total package of tenant rent policy changes, these simplifications make rent calculations more understandable for tenants and still allow hardship exceptions if necessary. Eliminating utility reimbursements under $20 is balanced to some degree by other changes. The changes save tenant time and in many cases lower costs. 1.s. - Elimination of Deduction(s) (HCV)

Deductions for unreimbursed childcare expenses will be eliminated. Along with the total package of tenant rent policy changes, these simplifications make rent calculations more understandable for tenants and still allow hardship exceptions if necessary. This expense is claimed by under 3 percent of households, none of which are elderly/disabled currently. Eliminating deductions is balanced by other changes. The changes save tenant time and in many cases lower costs. Decreased staff paperwork allows more time to work with tenants, explore new projects, or participate in training in possible new areas or expanded services.

Unreimbursed childcare costs

1.w. - Alternative Income Inclusions/Exclusions (HCV)

Simplifying reporting and verification of income for non-elderly, non-disabled households by excluding incomes that are challenging to verify or calculate but have little impact on households in terms of what they can afford. Eliminate the earned income disallowance and exclude school grants and school funding of all kinds from income. This applies to students of any age, attending full time or part time. Scholarships; financial aid; grants and contributions from any source, including family members; work study income; and all other funding will be excluded and not counted as income.

For non-student household members, income from dependents 20 and younger will not be included in the rent calculation. Wage income from household members 21 and older will be counted. This change saves staff and tenant time tracking receipts and doing repeated, changing calculations that do not significantly change tenants' situations. For non-student household members, wage income from dependents 20 and younger will not be included in the rent calculation. Wage income from household members 21 and older will be counted in the rent calculation.

2.b. - Payment Standards- Fair Market Rents (HCV)

Raise 1BR payment standard to 120 percent. Raise accessible unit payment standard to 140 percent for all sized units for tenants requiring those features. Although this change will increase agency expenses, agency can manage the increase. This change will increase housing choice in local tight rental market, especially for high demand 1BR units and scarce accessible units of any size. It will also serve as an incentive for current and prospective landlords to participate. With 38 households searching for a 1BR unit, and 581 total households on the 1BR waiting list, this attempt to increase housing choice and number of accessible units is necessary in our tight rental market.

HRHA will determine if units qualify as accessible using the following criteria: a unit that is designed and built to be usable by all people, to the greatest extent possible, without the need for adaptation or specialized design. HRHA will accept Type A or Type B units as classified within ANSI Section 1003 and ICC/ANSI A117.1, as amended.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

Following will explain the payment standards by FMR:

Following will explain the payment standards by FMR: For 2022, FMR for 1BR voucher is $723 currently. HRHA's 1BR voucher value will increase from the current $795 (110 percent) per month to $867 (120 percent) for a 1BR unit.

Accessible unit payment standards (140 percent) will be: 1BR $1,012; 2BR, $1,331; 3BR, $1,744; 4BR $2,279; 5BR

$2,620 for tenants requiring those features.

3.b. - Alternative Reexamination Schedule for Households (HCV)

Household reexaminations once every 3 years. Interim decreases once per year when there is a 20 percent or more decrease of gross income for household total income. Households without employment income or social security received by head of household or co-head (zero income households) will have an interim when new income begins. Applies to all tenant based units and all properties with project based vouchers. Interim policy applies to everyone right away. Triennials will kick in one year after new admission. Reducing the frequency of household certifications allows participants to keep more income increases. It also reduces the burden on both participants and Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) specialists in acquiring, submitting, and processing paperwork. Currently interims are extremely time consuming for HCV staff and stressful for resident families.

From July to December 2021, 333 interims were completed. 17 percent were household composition changes, rent increases, and other reasons. 37 percent were income increases. 46 percent were income decreases. Of the decreases, 11 percent were for 10 percent or less; 11 percent were for 10-20 percent; and the rest were over 20 percent. Setting a 20 percent threshold would not negatively affect a significant number of residents and would greatly increase staff efficiency. Legislation proposed in 2018 for HUD requested a 20 percent or more decrease as threshold: "Except as provided in clause (ii) and upon the request of a family, a public housing agency or owner is only required to conduct an interim reexamination of income if the family's income has decreased by 20 percent or more."

This change gives tenants a longer time with consistent rent to allow for better financial planning and housing security. The paperwork burden on voucher holders will lessen if they do not have to submit income and employment changes for incremental increases and fluctuations. Tenants will have a greater ability to save for and accomplish life goals such as pursuing education and rent independence or home ownership. HRHA will group tenants into a logical certification schedule while still allowing tenants to request certification if needed. Improved staff efficiency will allow planning for new initiatives or needed training in existing or new areas of focus.

Recertification Schedule is

Once every three years

Household may request 1 interim recertifications per year.

Interim decreases once per year when there is a 20 percent or more decrease of gross income for household total income.

For zero income households an interim will occur when new income begins, or after 3 months of zero income an interim will be completed with income from previous certification.

3.d. - Self-Certification of Assets (HCV)

At reexamination, the agency will allow the self-certification of assets up to $50,000. Reduced documentation requirements will be cost effective by reducing staff time for processing, a primary goal, though in a secondary way, self reporting may empower and promote self sufficiency. Reducing documentation saves time for staff and the majority of tenants whose assets are below a level that makes a difference in qualifying for support. Decreased staff paperwork allows more time to work with tenants, explore new projects, or participate in training in possible new areas or expanded services.

4.a. - Vacancy Loss (HCV-Tenant-based Assistance)

Vacancy loss of one month contract rent for the prior lease, upon execution of a new HAP contract. The only exclusion would be unit changes within the same owner's portfolio. These incentives will increase retention of current program landlords and attract new landlords by reducing risk of monetary loss, in this case for the time units are vacant. A larger reliable pool of landlords will help HRHA house more families more quickly and possibly reduce its large waiting list in our tight rental market.

$0 issued under this policy in the most recently completed PHA fiscal year.

4.b. - Damage Claims (HCV-Tenant-based Assistance)

Payment of up to one month of contract rent for damage claims, if cost of repairs exceeds security deposit, upon execution of a new HAP contract. Landlords must show intention to collect from household sufficient for HCV to hold household accountable to termination if needed. These incentives will increase retention of current program landlords and attract new landlords by reducing risk of monetary loss. This incentive will compensate for needed repairs or damages beyond the security deposit. 4.c. - Other Landlord Incentives (HCV- Tenant-based Assistance)
Payment incentives including a referring landlord bonus of $250; a new landlord signing bonus of $250; a new contract bonus of $250; and a security deposit, one time per tenant, of up to one month's rent. These incentives will increase retention of current program landlords and attract new landlords by reducing risk of monetary loss. Incentives will compensate for the time units are vacant and for needed repairs or damages beyond the security deposit. Security deposits will make landlords more willing to hold units for voucher participants. A larger reliable pool of landlords will help HRHA house more families more quickly and possibly reduce its large waiting list in our tight rental market.

5.a. - Pre-Qualifying Unit Inspections (HCV)

Pre-qualifying unit inspections will increase HRHA efficiency, cost savings, and housing choice by allowing greater flexibility for lease up for the tenant and reducing unnecessary costs for re-inspections. HRHA anticipates implementation of this activity will increase ability of households to access housing, expand utilization, and reduce inspection costs.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

Cost effectiveness;Housing choice

This MTW activity has the following cost implications:

Neutral (no cost implications)

An MTW activity may apply to new admissions only, to currently assisted households only, or to both new admissions and currently assisted households.

The MTW activity applies to all assisted households

5.c. - Third-Party Requirement (HCV)

This third -party inspection collaboration will save staff time by using a known, qualified agency to conduct inspections. The Harrisonburg-Rockingham Community Services Board (HRCSB) has certified HQS Inspectors on staff, and HRHA is looking to them for partner inspections. This partnership will increase HRHA efficiency and free some staff time to focus on more critical tasks that benefit tenants, to increase strategic initiatives, and to better coordinate efforts. This change will allow HRHA to operate more efficiently and strategically to serve its mission and focus on any new opportunities that arise.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

Cost effectiveness

This MTW activity has the following cost implications:

Neutral (no cost implications)

The quality assurance method:

Following will explain the quality assurance method – This policy provides authority for the HCVP manager to develop and implement procedures for the conduct of regularly scheduled quality control of other agencies' inspections. The HCVP manager will establish the sampling size and frequency within the procedures and designate the QC inspector roles and responsibilities. The executive director is the designated approval authority for HCVP QC procedures.

9.a. - Increase PBV Program Cap (HCV)
This flexibility will allow HRHA to expand the number of vouchers available to project base, which will increase the number of housing options and units available for those with extremely low income. This change will allow for increased access for hard to find units, such as accessible one bedroom units. HRHA anticipates it will allow for the development of additional permanent supportive housing units. It will also increase administrative efficiencies for HRHA and allow tenants to be housed more quickly when appropriate units are available. Project basing will also preserve existing affordable housing allowing for redevelopment of aging out housing developments.
This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives: Cost effectiveness;Housing choice
This MTW activity has the following cost implications: Increased revenue
An MTW activity may apply to new admissions only, to currently assisted households only, or to both new admissions and currently assisted households. The MTW activity applies to all assisted households

50.00% of total authorized HCV units will be authorized for project-basing.

9.b. - Increase PBV Project Cap (HCV)
Increasing PBV project caps will allow HRHA to increase the number of units within a building without HUD approval. It will provide for more flexible use of housing units and increased choice for tenants. This change will increase the number of units available for extremely low income individuals needing deep rental assistance. It will also preserve existing affordable housing allowing for redevelopment of aging out housing developments.
This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives: Cost effectiveness;Housing choice
This MTW activity has the following cost implications: Increased revenue

9.c. - Elimination of PBV Selection Process for PHA-owned Projects Without Improvement, Development, or Replacement (HCV)

This change will allow HRHA to use project based vouchers to assist in renovating HRHA owned properties. The elimination will reduce development costs and increase efficiencies for HRHA in renovating or developing new units. Simplifying procurement will save administrative time and costs in the long run. It will also preserve existing affordable housing allowing for redevelopment of aging out housing developments.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

Cost effectiveness;Housing choice

This MTW activity has the following cost implications:

Decreased expenditures

9.h. - Limit Portability for PBV Units (HCV)

Restrict moves from PBV units in Franklin Heights properties for 24 months. This change increases the initial term of housing stability for residents and decreases the administrative burden for staff after initial intake. The extended time from one to two years will allow for potential increase in household self-sufficiency due to the ability to participate in the Family Self-Sufficiency program. If tenants move out of Franklin Heights, they may not be able to continue in the program if space is not available. Participants still retain the ability to request a tenant-based voucher for reasonable accommodation according to existing rules as outlined in existing agency HCV administrative plan.

10.d.HCV - Modify or Eliminate the Contract of Participation (HCV)

HRHA will modify the FSS contract of participation to reflect the removal of the traditional escrow model and the implementation of the new Goal Rewards Model. This involves modifying the following sections in the FSS Contract: FSS Escrow Account; Withdrawal of Funds from FSS Escrow Account; Loss of FSS Escrow Account; and HA Responsibilities. This change is part of a shift to a participant-driven coaching model that will give participants more empowerment and ownership of their path forward while still providing needed guidance. It will increase collaboration and trust between staff and participants to make progress toward goals. These changes shift the agency-participant relationship away from rule enforcement and toward life coaching. FSS staff will help participants clarify program goals based on their needs, abilities, and skills.

This MTW activity serves the following statutory objectives:

Self-sufficiency

10.e.HCV - Policies for Addressing Increases in Family Income (HCV)
HRHA will replace the Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) escrow model with a Goal Rewards Model. In the proposed model, participants earn immediate cash incentives for reaching milestones related to income, finance, education, health, employment, and other self-sufficiency goals. Incentives can immediately and tangibly reward participants for progress toward self-sufficiency and inspire them to take the next steps. Participants will have the choice to either receive the incentive immediately via check or deposit the amount into an HRHA managed savings account. At this time, increases in income will not be recorded and will not contribute to increases in escrow. There will be incentives based on maintaining and earning income, however they will not be directly tied to increases in income from start of program.
NOTE: The following should show in the textbox below "How increased earnings will be treated": HRHA proposes modifying the FSS contract of participation to reflect the new escrow system, which includes a Goal Rewards Model based on achievement of self-sufficiency activities. This involves modifying the following sections in the FSS Contract: FSS Escrow Account; Withdrawal of Funds from FSS Escrow Account; Loss of FSS Escrow Account; and HA Responsibilities.
